We envision a world where ALL children are accepted, cherished and connected.

North Carolina Families United's mission is:

"Helping children with emotional and behavioral challenges and their families through support, advocacy and system change."

We believe that the best way to help families and their children improve their lives is through support, information, and advocacy.

Parents/caregivers should be full partners in the treatment of their children. North Carolina Families United believes that an informed parent/caregiver is a vital part of any treatment that a child receives.

We believe in a System of Care for children.

What is a System of Care?

A spectrum of community based mental health and other necessary services which are organized into a coordinated network to meet the multiple and changing needs of emotionally disturbed children and adolescents. (Definition from GS 122)
